O Lord, how manifold are your works!

In wisdom you have made them all;
the earth is full of your creatures.

Yonder is the sea, great and wide,
creeping things innumerable are there,

living things both small and great.

These all look to you to give them their food in due season;

when you give it to them, they gather it up;
when you open your hand,
they are filled with good things.

When you hide your face, they are dismayed;
when you take away their breath,
they die and return to their dust.

When you send forth your spirit, they are created;
you renew the face of the ground.

R

May the glory of the Lord endure forever.

May you rejoice always in your works—
you who look on the earth and it trembles,
who touch the mountains and they smoke.

I will sing to the Lord as long as I live;

I will sing praise to my God while I have being.

May my meditation be pleasing to God,
for I rejoice in the Lord.

All: Bless the Lord, O my soul.

Praise the Lord!
