

Winds of Change

Words and Music
David L. Edwards

D G D

1. The wind was blow - ing all night long. It's blow - ing still this
 2. trees are bend - ing in the wind. Their branch - es wild - ly
 3. Noth - ing ev - er stays the same. We on - ly have this morn - ing. Clouds are fly - ing through the sky, and wav - ing. They are root - ed in the earth. Their mo - ment. Life is change and change is life, of

8 G D G D

14 G A G A D

white - caps on the wa - ter. Spring is try - ing to be trunks are gent - ly sway - ing. When we find out how to this we can be cer - tain. If we do not fear the

21 A G A D D

born while win - ter's hang - ing on. The wind can live in ways both strong and ten - der, as winds of wind and do not fear the chang - ing, we will be a soft sum - mer breeze, or tem - pest fierce - ly ra - ging.

27 G D G 1,2

 change come and go, we will not break or splin - ter.
 learn to live and die with joy that's nev - er

33 A 3 G D

2. The end - ing.